Defendant.)	ORDER

This matter is before the Court upon Magistrate Judge Kathleen B. Burke's Report and Recommendation ("R&R") that the Court accept Defendant Rayshawn Reed's ("Defendant") pleas of guilty and enter findings of guilty against Defendant. ECF No. 128.

On December 20, 2012, the Government filed an Indictment against Defendant alleging violations of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(b)(1)(A), (B), (C); 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C); and 843(b), conspiracy to distribute heroin, possession of heroin with intent to distribute and use of a communication facility, respectively. ECF No. 1. Thereafter, Defendant notified the Court of Defendant's intent to enter pleas of guilty, pursuant to a written plea agreement. ECF No. 122. The Court issued an order referring the matter to Magistrate Judge Burke for the purpose of receiving Defendant's guilty pleas. ECF No. 123.

On April 19, 2013, Magistrate Judge Burke held a hearing during which Defendant consented to the order of referral (ECF No. 127) and entered guilty pleas as to Counts 1 and 3 of the Indictment. Magistrate Judge Burke received Defendant's guilty pleas and issued a Report recommending that this Court accept Defendant Rayshawn Reed's pleas and enter findings of guilty. ECF No. 128.

The time limitation to file objections to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation has expired and neither party has filed objections or requested an extension of time.

Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b) states:

Before the court accepts a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, the defendant may be placed under oath, and the court must address the defendant personally in open court. During this address, the court must inform the defendant of, and determine that the defendant understands, the following: (A) the government's right, in a prosecution for perjury or false statement, to use against the defendant any statement that the defendant gives under oath; (B) the right to plead not guilty, or having already so pleaded, to persist in that plea; (C) the right to a jury trial; (D) the right to be represented by counsel—and if necessary have the court appoint counsel—at trial and at every other stage of the proceeding; (E) the right at trial to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, to be protected from compelled self-incrimination, to testify and present evidence, and to compel the attendance of witnesses; (F) the defendant's waiver of these trial rights if the court accepts a plea of guilty or nolo contendere; (G) the nature of each charge to which the defendant is pleading; (H) any maximum possible penalty, including imprisonment, fine, and term of supervised release; (I) any mandatory minimum penalty; (J) any applicable forfeiture; (K) the court's authority to order restitution; (L) the court's obligation to impose a special assessment; (M) in determining a sentence, the court's obligation to calculate the applicable sentencing-guideline range and to consider that range, possible departures under the Sentencing Guidelines, and other sentencing factors under 18 U.S.C. §3553(a); and (N) the terms of any plea-agreement provision waiving the right to appeal or to collaterally attack the sentence.

The undersigned has reviewed the transcript and the Magistrate Judge's R&R and finds, that in her careful and thorough proceeding, Magistrate Judge Burke satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Crim. P. 11 and the United States Constitution. Defendant was placed under oath and determined to be competent to enter pleas of guilty. Defendant was made aware of the charges and consequences of conviction and his rights and waiver thereof. Magistrate Judge Burke also correctly determined that Defendant had consented to proceed before the magistrate judge and tendered his pleas of guilty knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily. Furthermore, the magistrate judge also correctly found that there was an adequate factual basis for the pleas.

Upon de novo review of the record, the Report and Recommendation is adopted. Therefore, Defendant Rayshawn Reed is adjudged guilty of Counts 1 and 3 of the Indictment, conspiracy to distribute heroin and possession of heroin with intent to distribute, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(b)(1)(A), (B) and (C); and 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C), respectively.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
